1 John 5[12] He that hath the Son hath the Life.

Living our Eternal lives now.

Intro. — Jesus conception of God and how he applied it.

Ps 19[1-3] — The god of Creation.
— The god of Nature
— The god of mankind.

How Jesus applied his conception of God.

Jesus aimed to be the fullest expression of the God life.

"I and the Father are One.
As the Father hath life in himself even so gave he life to have life in himself."

The Life and Kingdom of God was within himself.
therefore it must be developed there himself — from within.

Hence, Jesus lived the life He believed that God himself was living in creation. Jesus endeavored to live humanly as God was living infinitely in all his creation.

A. Our measure of Eternal Life is within ourselves. It is now as much as it ever can be. It only awaits our realization and development.

B. In order to live our Eternal Life we must make ourselves the expression of it.

As great men are but ordinary men intensified and expanded so godlike men are but ordinary men eternalized.

C. Characteristics of Eternal Life:

1. Open-mindedness
God in Nature sees things from all angles and for all time to come.

2. The great Intelligence of the Universe as expressed in Nature never advances on theories, sentiments, feelings, guesswork or assumptions but on the basis of Law.

All unsound reasoning, feeling, wishing, hoping, and striving of man is swept aside by man!

3. God in Nature builds minutely
Great bodies are but the sum of particles.
Time is but the never ceasing flow of minutes.
In each successive act, test, encounter, that, I will be greater than in the one previous In one hour from now I must be more than I am now.
In everything I must surpass myself.

4. God in nature never shows us his plans as plans - he demonstrates them as completed structures.
Less expression of our plans, desires, and intentions and more of them carried out into action would be more eternal like. now and always Conclusion - We should seek to become our fullest expression of Eternal Life.
Is god Justice and righteousness? Then let us be right and do rightly.
Is god tolerant, patient, and merciful?
Is god confident, independent + self-reliant?
Is god love? ——
